Authored by SP Member Jeanne Jinky C. Zaplan

PROVINCIAL RESOLUTION NO. 755-2021

URGING ALL THE BARANGAY CAPTAINS TO ASSIGN A SINGLE FUNCTION FOR BARANGAY HEALTH WORKERS IN THE PROVINCE OF PANGASINAN

WHEREAS, barangays are mandated to hire barangay health workers who will render appropriate services to their areas and for them to be provided with appropriate monthly allowance depending on the availability of funds by the concerned local government;

WHEREAS, barangay health workers play important roles in the government's campaign on health, wellness and nutrition in the different barangays for the benefit of the residents;

WHEREAS, barangay health workers are commonly involved in various primary healthcare programs, including immunisation, maternal care, family planning and hypertension management;

WHEREAS, at present, barangay health workers have evolved to become an essential component of the healthcare system in the community because of the enormous job assigned to them, especially with the prevailing implementation of the community quarantine to contain the further spread of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, during this period of pandemic, barangay health workers are also considered as frontliners as they are members of the Barangay Health Emergency Response Teams (BHERTs);

WHEREAS, there are instances when barangay health workers also serve as barangay nutrition scholars, among other roles they play at the barangays;
